

Your information

You are giving your information to National Westminster Bank Plc. We are a member of The Royal Bank of Scotland Group (the Group). For information about our group of companies please visit www.rbs.com and click on 'About Us' or for similar enquiries please telephone 0131 556 8555 or Minicom 0345 900 5960. For details of how we and others will use your information in your capacity as additional cardholder and how to give your consent, please see below.

Your information includes all the financial and personal information we hold about you and your transactions. It includes information that we receive from third parties, information that we learn about you through our relationship with you, and information that we gather from the technology which you use to access our services.

How we use your information and who we share it with

- (a) We may use and share your information with other members of the Group and with third parties providing services to either you or the Group. This information helps us and them to: process your application, provide you with services and manage our (or their) relationship with you; prevent and detect crime.
- (b) The information which we hold and share allows us and other Group companies to better understand what our customers need from us. Within the Group, we analyse information: to understand our customers' preferences, expectations and behaviour; to develop, test and review the performance of the Group's products and services.
- (c) We do not disclose your information to anyone outside the Group except: where we have your permission; where we are required or permitted to do so by law or a regulatory body; to third party service providers, agents and sub-contractors acting on our behalf; to credit reference and fraud prevention agencies; to other companies that provide a service to you directly or on our behalf.
- (d) We may disclose your information to government entities or regulatory bodies in order that those entities may discharge their responsibilities and obligations or exercise their powers or functions.
- (e) We may transfer your information to other countries on the basis that anyone to whom we pass it provides an adequate level of protection. However, such information may be accessed by law enforcement agencies and other authorities to prevent and detect crime and comply with legal obligations.
- (f) Our third party service providers may share information about you with us in accordance with their own policies on use of information. If we obtain information about you from our third party service providers, we will only use this information for the purposes set out in (a) - (e).

We may contact you by a variety of means including via the application on your mobile phone, email, text message, post and/or telephone. If at any point in the future you change your mobile phone number, email address, postal address or telephone number, you should tell us promptly about those changes.

From time to time we may change the way we use your information. Where we believe you may not reasonably expect such a change we shall write to you. If you do not object to the change within 60 days, you consent to that change.

If you would like a copy of the information we hold about you, please write to: The Data Protection Officer, The Royal Bank of Scotland plc, Cards Customer Services, PO Box 5747, Southend-on-Sea SS1 9AJ. A fee may be payable.

Credit Reference Agencies

We may obtain information about you from credit reference agencies to verify your identity.

Fraud Prevention Agencies

In order to prevent and detect fraud, the information provided in this application will be shared with fraud prevention agencies. If false or inaccurate information is provided and fraud is identified or suspected, details will be recorded with these agencies to prevent fraud and money laundering. We or our service providers (including those acting on their behalf) may also share information to help us check your identity when you use your credit card. This may involve sending information overseas (for example, to the USA) but we will continue to be responsible for the security of that information. Law enforcement agencies may access and use this information. We, and other organisations that may access and use information recorded by fraud prevention agencies, may do so from other countries.

We can provide the names and addresses of the credit reference and fraud prevention agencies we use if you would like a copy of your information held by them. Please contact The Data Protection Officer, The Royal Bank of Scotland plc, Cards Customer Services, PO Box 5747, Southend-on-Sea SS1 9AJ. The agencies may charge a fee.
